

New Investment General Terms and Conditions*Definitions

Appendix C List of Countries	Please access the current list of Appendix C countries via this link, and note that these are subject to change, Handbook on Countering Financial Crime (AML/CFT/CPF) .
Commercially Exposed Person	Commercially Exposed Persons (CEPs) will be senior executives of well-known commercial enterprises being a national or international business which can be regarded as a household name, either locally, or elsewhere.
FATCA	FATCA stands for the Foreign Account Tax Compliance provisions, which were enacted into U.S. law as part of the Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment (HIRE) Act on March 18, 2010. FATCA creates a new information reporting and withholding regime for payments made to certain non-U.S. financial institutions and other non-U.S. entities.
High Risk Applicants	If you are a Politically Exposed Person, Commercially Exposed Person or from a High Risk Jurisdiction you are considered a high risk applicant.
High Risk Jurisdictions	Please access the current list of Appendix H and Appendix I high risk jurisdictions via the link below, but please note that these are subject to change.  Countries and territories that the GFSC have identified as presenting a higher risk of ML, TF and/or PF can be found in the Handbook, see the following link: Handbook on Countering Financial Crime (AML/CFT/CPF) .
Participating Jurisdiction	A Participating Jurisdiction means a jurisdiction with which an agreement is in place pursuant to which it will provide the information set out in the Common Reporting Standard (CRS).
Politically Exposed Person	The term Politically Exposed Person means any current and former senior political figure who holds or held a Prominent function (as defined below), or a natural person who is or has been entrusted with a prominent function (as defined below) by an international organisation. The PEP status also applies to their immediate family and close associates. (A senior political figure is a senior figure in the executive, legislative, administrative, military or judicial branches of a government (elected or non-elected), a senior figure of a major political party, or a senior executive of a government owned corporation. It includes any corporate entity, partnership or trust relationship that has been established by, or for the benefit of, a senior political figure. Immediate family typically includes the person's parents, siblings, spouse, partner (where considered by the law of the country or territory in which the relevant public function is held as being equivalent to a spouse), children, in-laws, grandparents and grandchildren. Close associate typically includes a person who is widely and publicly known to maintain an unusually close relationship with the PEP and includes a person who is in a position to conduct substantial domestic and international financial transactions on the PEP's behalf. *Prominent Functions are: - <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Heads of state or heads of government</li> <li>ii. Senior politicians and other important officials of political parties</li> <li>iii. Senior government officials</li> </ol>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>iv. Senior members of the judiciary</li> <li>v. Senior military officers</li> <li>vi. Senior executives of state-owned body corporates e.g. Directors, councillors and members of the board or equivalent positions</li> </ul>
Reportable Jurisdiction	Is a jurisdiction in which an obligation to provide financial account information is in place.
Reportable Jurisdiction Person	An applicant that is a tax resident in a Reportable Jurisdiction(s) under the tax laws of such jurisdiction(s).
Reportable Person	A Reportable Person is defined as a Reportable Jurisdiction Person, other than: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. a corporation the stock of which is regularly traded on one or more established securities markets;</li> <li>ii. any corporation that is a Related Entity of a corporation described in clause (a);</li> <li>iii. a Governmental Entity;</li> <li>iv. an International Organisation;</li> <li>v. a Central Bank; or</li> <li>vi. a Financial Institution (except for an Investment Entity described in Sub Paragraph A(6) b) of the CRS that are not Participating Jurisdiction Financial Institutions. Instead, such Investment Entities are treated as Passive NFE's).</li> </ul>
Resident for tax purposes	Generally, an applicant will be resident for tax purposes in a jurisdiction if, under the laws of that jurisdiction (including tax conventions), it pays or should be paying tax therein by reason of his domicile, residence, place of management or incorporation, or any other criterion of a similar nature, and not only from sources in that jurisdiction. For additional information on tax residence, please talk to your tax adviser or see the following link: OECD Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes.
Tax Identification Number (TIN) (including functional equivalent)	The term TIN means Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual and used to identify the individual for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the following link: OECD Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes. Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN. However, these jurisdictions often utilise some other high integrity number with an equivalent level of identification (a functional equivalent).
