

Abu Dhabi Global Market's Financial Services Regulatory Authority regulatory update Q4 2025

Regulatory horizon scanning and enforcement

- On October 16, 2025, Abu Dhabi Global Market (“ADGM”) announced the publication of the Commercial Licensing Regulations \(Conditions of Licence and Branch Registration\) Rules 2025 (“Conditions of License Rules”) and the Commercial Licensing Regulations (Controlled Activities) Rules 2025 (“Controlled Activities Rules”). The enhanced framework strengthens ADGM’s regulatory environment by:
 - Introducing a new controlled activity for tax services
 - Establishing new application requirements for licenses to provide legal and tax services
 - Setting continuing conditions of license for licensed legal and tax service providers
 - Enhancing governance standards for licensed company service providers through mandatory conflicts of interest policies and procedures
- On November 23, 2025, the ADGM Registration Authority (“RA”) identified a serious case of misconduct involving the Public Relations Officer engaged by a retail business in ADGM. An investigation confirmed that the retailer had been provided with, and publicly displayed, a falsified ADGM Commercial License.
- On December 19, 2025, the ADGM RA published enhancements to its existing framework under the Commercial Permits Regulations 2024 to introduce rules for Entertainment and Events, Temporary Commercial, and Sales and Promotion (collectively, the “Rules”). The Rules will help to issue permits to strengthen consumer protection within ADGM by ensuring that activities are correctly regulated, as well as temporary activities and marketing and promotional activities are conducted transparently, fairly and responsibly. A summary of some of the key features of the Rules is as follows:
 - Introduction of a requirement to obtain a temporary commercial permit from the RA to operate within ADGM for a specified amount of time
 - Introducing a requirement to obtain a sales and promotions permit from the RA in respect of carrying out specific sales and promotions-related activities within ADGM by an ADGM licensed person or a temporary commercial permit holder
 - Introducing a requirement to obtain an entertainment and events permit from the RA for certain events, entertainment, photography, and speaking activities
 - Establishing specific conditions applicable to obtaining such permits

The enacted versions of the Rules and the Fees Rules are publicly available and can be viewed here:

Consultation papers

On October 14, 2025, the ADGM RA issued a Consultation Paper to explain and seek public feedback and comments on a proposal to introduce new subordinate rules to the Commercial Permits Regulations 2024 (“Commercial Permits Regulations”) concerning temporary commercial permits, temporary activity permits, special sales and promotions permits, and associated fees. The consultation period closed on October 30, 2025.

- On November 24, 2025, the Financial Services Regulatory Authority (“FSRA”) published Consultation Paper No. 12 of 2025, setting out proposed enhancements to its framework for funds and fund managers and seeking feedback on certain aspects of the current framework. The proposals include the introduction of streamlined regulatory frameworks for fund managers of smaller funds and for fund managers of funds targeting exclusively institutional investors. Proposed amendments to facilitate employee investment in private funds managed by their employer are also included, as are proposed revisions to the framework applicable to foreign fund managers. The consultation period will close on January 30, 2026 and the consultation materials may be viewed via this link: Consultation Paper No. 12 of 2025 - Proposed Enhancements to the FSRA’s Funds Framework.
- On November 26, 2025, the FSRA published Consultation Paper No. 13 of 2025, which sets out proposals to further align its regulatory framework with the Insurance Core Principles issued by the International Association of Insurance Supervisors. The proposed enhancements include strengthening risk management, market conduct, and reinsurance practices. These proposals are a continuation of the FSRA’s phased approach to benchmarking and enhancing its regulatory framework in alignment with international standards. They follow recent updates to align with principles published by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and the International Organization of Securities Commissions (“IOSCO”). The consultation period will close on January 30, 2026. The consultation materials may be viewed via this link. Comments can be submitted in writing to fsra.consultation@adgm.com.

Enforcement actions
